Abstract

On August 12, 2002 the city of Washington D.C and its trans community were rocked by the execution style killings of two transteens, Stephanie Thomas and Ukea Davis. They were shot dead by a semi automatic weapon at the same 50th and C Street corner in in Southeast D.C. in which the fatal traffic accident occurred in 1995 [...]

Article

I also want the wastes of DNA who committed this heinous crime to be brought to justice not just for me, the trans community of DC and around the world, but Stephanie's mother as well .

Stephanie And Ukea Anniversary

Rest in Peace Stephanie and Ukea

It's nine years later and you are still missed Stephanie and Ukea. May you rest in peace.
