Transadvocate is a place for discussion and debate. If feel like you have a rebuttal post, or want to do more than comment on a specific post, feel free to send an email response and I'll publish it in the Letters to The Editor section! Also acceptable for this section of the site are personal comments about me, or anything that I write on this site.

Hate the site? Hate me? Let me know! The only unacceptable contributions are DMCA violations and libelous content. Anything else goes!
