Article

Hillary Clinton is going to be the next President of the United States and look at all the trans friendly people who are endorsing her campaign.

Can you imagine endorsing a candidate that doesn't support gays and lesbians?

Why not? They don't have a problem supporting Presidential candidates that don't support transgender people, and why would you be surprised at that?

Take a look at what's happening in NY with GENDA or Massachusetts where transgender people can still be fired from their jobs, harassed, beat up and murdered with no hate crime law to help with investigations or prosecutions.

MASS Equality is having trouble trying to figure out what to do with their left over 3 million dollar budget. Their job is done, same sex marriage is legal, gays and lesbians have a non-discrimination law and a hate crimes law. Look out NY, same sex marriage will be next in your state too. Don't worry, they'll be back for ya...just ask Jeff Soref to help ya out, perhaps he'll even put in a good word for us so Hillary will support a trans-inclusive ENDA.

I do believe there are a few members of Mass Equality on Hillary's support list too, let's all remember to thank them.

While we're at it, we can thank Peter Rosenstein (another name on the "list") for his stellar support for trans-inclusion in ENDA and the Hate Crimes Prevention act. You can read about it here in his opinion piece: Should we support pro-gay legislation that does not include trans protections?

Do I really need to mention Joe Solmonese's co-hostess on XM satellite radio? She gets the double whammy award for support.

The list of undying support goes on and on and on but don't take my word for it, you have Google.

Hold the phone! There is one transgender person on this list, go get 'em Melissa Sklarz!

We like to try and change the world, one tranny at a time.

Here's Hillary's support list:
