TYSN's mission is to promote racial, social, and economic justice for trans youth, with the freedom to self-define gender identity and expression. TYSN hosts activities and support meetings that help trans youth overcome transphobia and develop their leadership talents.

The TransAdvocate is beginning a new holiday tradition. We're calling it the "12 Days of #TransGiving." This December series will feature awesome trans nonprofits and causes worthy of your support. Most trans causes and/or nonprofits really struggle. We want to highlight worthy causes and foster a culture of investing in our community. We encourage you to spread the word about #TransGiving and support the awesome causes profiled in this series!

Other causes in this series:

1. The Trans Center and Trans Archives

2. The Gender Book

3. The Boston Alliance of GLBT Youth
